CALLING ALL PIKES PEAK PASTEL SOCIETY MEMBERS

We have been invited to have an exhibit at the Laurel Justice Gallery!

NO SPRING CHICKENS

Seasoned Pastel Artists of the Pikes Peak Region

May 3 to May 22, 2019

Join us for First Friday on May 3, 5 to 8pm

Laurel Justice Gallery, 218 W. Colorado Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80903

Laurel is a pastelist herself, and so, she gave us first crack at this exciting opportunity. This just popped up and time is SHORT, so we have to act fast. The PPPS Exhibit Committee said "YES!" Now, we need YOU to paint up a storm or sort through what you have and PARTICIPATE!

WHAT

Pastel painting exhibit by members of the Pikes Peak Pastel Society curated by Laurel. Emphasis on Spring in our fair region, but that can include any genre, still life, landscape, figure, abstract.

BIN paintings for $100 or less may be delivered, too. These are not curated. Paintings for the BIN must be in plastic sleeves and properly labeled. See below.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

Bring 3 – 5 paintings, gallery-ready-to-hang (no sawtooth hangers) and clearly marked on the back with your name, the name of the piece, size, contact information, and the price to LSJ Gallery on April 22 from 10am – 12pm. Laurel will curate on the spot. A total of 16 – 20 pieces will be chosen.

Paintings for the BIN must be in plastic sleeves and clearly labeled as above. Bring up to 5 paintings, maximum size 16 x 20. No bin piece can be priced over $100.

The gallery split is 70% artist, 30% Gallery. There will be a contract to sign. All paintings must be for sale!

ARTIST TALK

Laurel will host an artist talk on Wednesday May 15 from 5 – 7:30pm. Honey is happy to do a demo on PanPastel unless there is someone who wants to do a talk on another topic. (Honey says she's happy to turn this over to someone else if there is anyone who wants to speak about something else related to the show.)
